

D. Floodplain :

Development shall be strongly discouraged in a 100-year floodplain or in areas where there is a high water table. Such development must meet the requirements of the federal emergency management agency, and it shall not significantly alter the natural drainage patterns of the land.